

The Contents Lists of Books on the jamesrobertson.com Website

The contents lists of all the books that can be downloaded from my website are listed together below, as a supplement to the Subject Guide to help people searching for particular topics dealt with on the website.

The books are listed below in reverse chronological order - recent ones first. To access subjects in particular chapters, click on the title of the relevant book, then click to download the text of the book (or its Section containing the chapter you want).

James Robertson

Books

Future Money	2
The History of Money	5
Monetary Reform	6
Creating New Money	7
The New Economics of Sustainable Development	9
Beyond the Dependency Culture	11
Sharing Our Common Heritage	14
Future Wealth	17
Future Work	20
The Sane Alternative	23

2012

Future Money: Breakdown or Breakthrough?

Preface	11
A summary of key points	21
PART ONE: Understanding the money system
Summary	25
Introduction: the evolving money system	27
Understanding money as an evolving system; Money is a human invention; Why comparing money values motivates our behaviour; Governments can't avoid deciding how money works; The prospects for our civilisation; Only connect; Money must be made to work more simply and clearly; Purposes for the money system in the 21st century
Chapter 1: Some lessons from the history of money	43
The origins of money; The legacy of ancient Greece and Rome; From feudalism to the revival of money; Providing society with money; Transforming taxes into acceptable charges (box); Trade, paper money, banknotes and 'bankers' tricks'; The Bank of England: the first central bank; About booms and busts (box); The Industrial Revolution, Britain's financial supremacy, and opposition to capitalism; Tax shifts are linked to changes in society (box); The rise of America and the one-world economy; Between the wars; Bretton Woods and after; Small is becoming more beautiful; Conclusion
Chapter 2: Money and ethics	67
How money reflects values and embodies them; The connection between economists and the money system; The stand-off between economics and ethics; The distinction between facts and values; The fuzziness of real-life values (box); Today's conflict between money values and real-life values; Ethical alternatives; Religious faiths, ethics and money; New purposes for the money system; Two final thoughts – from Keynes

Future Money (cont.)

PART TWO: Proposed reforms

Introduction	91
The central role of governments in the money system; Two key consequences; New purposes and principles; Necessary reforms in governments' money functions
Chapter 3: Managing the national money supply	97
Start with the right questions; The present arrangement; A lesson from the history of banknotes; Interconnected effects of the present arrangement; A regular cause of financial instability; Monetary reform: separating the two functions; Controlling the money supply after monetary reform; Lending, borrowing and saving after monetary reform; The regulatory consequences; International competition and the national economy; The eurozone crisis; Conclusion
Chapter 4: Collecting and spending public revenue	123
Only connect: the need to understand the links; Tax avoidance/ evasion, false benefit claims and 'moral hazard' (box); Raising national public revenue: the need for a tax shift; Common resources; National public spending: the need for a shift in spending; Potential synergies; Looking further ahead; The fourth and fifth Treasury functions; Proposals from Chapters 3 and 4
Chapter 5: The international money system: what can we do about it?	141
The context; The International Commission on Global Governance; International monetary reform; Possible opposition to international monetary reform; Global taxes, global public spending and other global 'economic instruments'; List of United Nations agencies (box); Rationing and trading schemes versus taxes and charges; Conclusion
Chapter 6: Money for localities, households and people	155
Local money systems and community currencies; Better coordinated local development: the role of money
Chapter 7: Some abstractions and distractions	163
Capitalism and Socialism; Economic growth (and full employment); Gold and other commodities; Rationing and trading; A note on corruption

Future Money (cont.)

Conclusion: So what's to be done? And how?	171
Appendix 1: The Georgist and Social Credit movements	177
Appendix 2: Contacts for further study and research, selected references and acknowledgements	180
Index	188

2007

The History of Money: From Its Origins to Our Time

(English version)

Introduction	1
Chapter 1: Prehistoric Times and the Birth of Coins	1
Chapter 2: Ancient Greece and Rome Power, Money, Land and Debt; Ancient Rome	3
Chapter 3: Kings and Rulers Providing Society with Money; People Don't Like Taxes	5
Chapter 4: Trade, Banking and Paper Money Paper money; Spanish Gold and Silver	8
Chapter 5: Towards Modern Money The First Central Bank; Bursting Bubbles; Speculating and Gambling	10
Chapter 6: Money and Ethics – Is There a Conflict? Money is Numbers; Ethics and Money	12
Chapter 7: The Industrial Revolution and Britain's Financial Supremacy International Traders and Bankers; Taxes and Trade in the Industrial Age; Opposition to Capitalism	14
Chapter 8: The Rise of America and The One-World Economy Between the Wars; Since Bretton Woods	17
Chapter 9: History in the Making Small is Beautiful; Money Values in Conflict with Ethical Values; Understanding how the Money System Works	19
Conclusion	21

2003

Monetary Reform - Making it Happen! (with John Bunzl)

Summary	9
1. A Historical Perspective	13
Situation Today and in 19th Century Britain
Lessons from 19th Century Britain
2. Monetary Reform Today	25
The Proposed Reform
Seigniorage and the Global Economy
Dealing with Obstacles and Objections
(Ten Obstacles/Objections are discussed)
3. The Simultaneous Policy (SP) Approach	45
Aims of International SP Organisation (ISPO)
Global Markets and Obstacles to Monetary Reform
Specific Arguments in Favour of Simultaneous Policy
Responses to Five Arguments Against SP
4. An Action Programme for Monetary Reform	65
Action Within One Country to promote monetary reform
Action to help to promote it in Other Countries too
International Action to promote International Reform
SP Offers a Twin-Track, National/International Approach
How to "Adopt" Simultaneous Policy	74
Further Reading and Resources	76

2000

Creating New Money: A monetary reform for the information age (with Joseph Huber)

Foreword by Ed Mayo	iii
1. A Monetary Reform for the Information Age	1
2. Restoring Seigniorage: Implications for Public Finance and Monetary Policy	8
2.1 Method of Issuing New Money
2.2 Government Spending
2.3 Government Borrowing
2.4 Taxation
2.5 Monetary Control and Inflation
2.6 Central Bank/Government Relations
3. Restoring Seigniorage: Implications for Banking	20
3.1 Declaring Sight Deposits as Legal Tender
3.2 How to Stop the Creation of Sight Deposits by Commercial Banks
3.3 Bank Customers' Current Accounts
3.4 Banks' Current Accounts and Balance Sheets
3.5 Central Banks' Accounts and Balance Sheets
3.6 Only a Little "Big Bang"
4. The Wider Case for Seigniorage Reform	31
4.1 A Principle of Equity and Justice
4.2 The Social Dimension
4.3 The Constitutional Dimension
4.4 Reducing Inflationary Tendencies
4.5 Greater Economic Stability
4.6 Safety and Stability of Money and Banks
4.7 Liberating the Real Economy
4.8 The Environmental Dimension
4.9 Transparency and Intelligibility
5. Replies to Suggested Objections	44
5.1 Inflation
5.2 Nationalisation
5.3 A Tax on Money
5.4 Impact on Banking Services and Charges
5.5 Possible Loopholes: Minimum Notice Policy
5.6 Parallel and Unofficial Currencies
5.7 Electronic Money
5.8 Summing Up the Risks of Evasion
5.9 Supposed International Disadvantages
5.10 Towards International Monetary Reform

1999

The New Economics Of Sustainable Development: A Briefing For Policy Makers

A Report submitted to the European Commission in 1997

Foreword by Jean-Claude Thébeault	iii
Introduction and Executive Summary	1
Purpose of the Briefing
Some Relevant Facts of Life
Principles of the New Economics
The State, the Market and the Citizen
Areas of Policy
Changes in Taxes and Welfare Benefits
Public Spending
Money and Finance
The Global Economy
From Growth to Sustainable Development
Conclusion
1. The New Economics	14
1.1 Background
1.2 Rise of the New Economics Movement
1.3 Principles
1.4 Some Differences of Emphasis
1.5 The State, the Market and the Citizen
2. A Common Pattern	27
2.1 Farming and Food
2.2 Travel and Transport
2.3 Energy
2.4 Work, Livelihoods and Social Cohesion
2.5 Local Development
2.6 Technology
2.7 Business
2.8 Health, and Law and Order
2.9 A Brief Conclusion
3. Taxation and Public Spending	47
3.1 A Restructured Tax System and a Citizen's Income
3.1 (1) Ecotax Reform
3.1 (2) Site-Value Land Taxation
3.1 (3) Citizen's Income (or Basic Income)
3.1 (4) Taxes and Benefits: The Wider Context
3.1 (5) Avoiding Regressive Effects
3.1 (6) Targeting or Universality?
3.1 (7) Towards a New Social Compact
3.2 Public Expenditure Programmes	56
3.2 (1) Public Purchasing

The New Economics of Sustainable Development (cont.)

3.2 (2) A Framework for the Market
3.2 (3) Prevention instead of Cure?
3.2 (4) Lower Total Public Spending?
3.3 Summary of Policy Implications
4. Money and Finance	62
4.1 Damaging Effects
4.1.(1) Transfer of Resources from Poor to Rich
4.1.(2) Money Must Grow
4.2 An Emerging Post-Modern Perspective
4.2 (1) What Is Money For?
4.2.(2) Should Money Reflect Objective Values?
4.2 (3) Whose Money System Is It?
4.2 (4) Why Does the System Work Badly?
4.3 Currencies, Interest and Debt
4.3 (1) A Single or Multiple Currency System
4.3 (2) Interest and Currencies
4.3 (3) Electronic Money and Deregulation
4.4 Financial Institutions
4.4 (1) Conventional Financial Institutions
4.4 (2) New Financial Institutions
4.5 Summary of Policy Implications
5. The Global Economy	77
5.1 The Global Context and Europe's Role
5.2 Unilateral National (and European) Policies
5.3 Creating a Global Framework
5.3 (1) Trade
5.3 (2) Finance
5.3 (3) Restructuring Global Institutions
5.4 Short-Term and Long-Term Priorities
5.5 Summary of Policy Implications
6. From Growth to Sustainable Development	91
6.1 Measurement and Accounting
6.2 Beyond Cost/Benefit Analysis
6.3 The Meaning of Economic Efficiency
6.4 Internalise Costs or Pay "Rent"?
6.5 Towards a Cost-Saving Economy?
6.6 New Models in Economics and Science
6.7 Summary of Policy Implications
Annex A. Background and Terms of Reference	101
Annex B is not included in this text. See note on page	103
Annex C. References and Bibliography	104
The Forward Studies Unit	110

1998

Beyond The Dependency Culture:
People, Power And Responsibility In The 21st Century

Foreword by Ronald Higgins	(1998)	iv
Introduction	(1997)	vii
Theme and Origins
The Historical Context
Coming Changes
'Post-Industrial' and 'Post-Modern'
1. Post-Industrial Liberation And Reconstruction	(1977)	1
The Dual Economy
Limits to the Institutionalised Economy
The Future
Liberation
Decolonisation
Metaphysical Reconstruction
Action Learning as the New Economics?
2. A Post-Marxist Strategy For The Post-Industrial Revolution	(1978)	21
Outlines of a New Future
A Hyper-Expansion (HE) Future
A Sane, Humane, Ecological (SHE) Future
The Nature of the Challenge
A Multitude of Roles
What Would Marx Say
A Non-Violent Revolution
3. The Political Economy of A More Conserving Society	(1979)	40
Changing Perceptions of Political Economy
A More Conserving Society
Using Less Energy
4. Work: The Right To Be Responsible	(1980)	58
Voltaire's Relevance Today
Rights and Responsibilities
Work

Beyond the Dependency Culture (cont.)

- 5. What Comes After The Welfare State? A Post-Welfare Development Path For The UK (1980) 75
 The Industrial Paradigm
 The Key Dilemma: Persons or Society
 Self-Development for Persons and Communities
 Post-Welfare Role of Professionals
 Some Problems
- 6. A New Politics (Introduction to Green Politics: The Global Promise) (1984) 89
- 7. Money: 1, Thou And It. (1984) 97
I and Thou And The Future of Man
 The Growing Role of Money
 Money as an Aspect of the Scientific Worldview
 Personalising the Use of Money
- 8. Towards A Post-Modern Worldview (1990) 106
 The European Inheritance
 Origins of the Modern Worldview
 Recovery of Purpose
 Revival of Ethical Values
 Evolving a New Worldview
- 9. New Commonhealth (1991) 118
 Health, Not Sickness
 Wealth as Well-Being
 Health, Wealth and Ecosystems - The 1992 Process
 Europe, and the Challenge of 1992
- 10. Devil's Tunes: An Infernal Strategy Review(1992)127
 by B.L.Z.Bubb and other Stygian Council members
- 11. Beyond Horseshit Economics (or The Fallacy of Single-Level Control): Local Economies in A Changing Global Environment (1992) 132
 The Historical Background
 Recent Developments
 The Internationalisation of Economic Activity
 Two Guiding Principles
 The Inflexibility of Single-Level Control
 A Multi-Level Approach
 Environmental Sustainability in a Multi-Level System
 A Twin-Track Approach

Beyond the Dependency Culture (cont.)

- 12. Monetary Democracy For Europe (1992) 145
- 13. The Keynes And Thatcher Revolutions Have Both Failed: What Now? An Open Letter To The Chancellor Of The Exchequer (1993) 151
Why Keynes and Thatcher Both Failed
Work
Land and Energy
Capital
- 14. What's Wrong With Nuclear Power? (1993) 161
- 15. Investing To Create Social Wealth (1995) 168
Three Different Views of Social Investment
People-Centred Development
and the Post-Modern Transition
Some Post-Modern Prospects for Money and Finance
- 16. A New Social Compact: Citizen's Income And Radical Tax Reform (1996) 178
Present Problems and Recent Developments
Arguments for Comprehensive Reform
A New Social Compact
- Epilogue (1997) 191
Institutional Change
The Pace of Change
Conclusion

1998

Sharing Our Common Heritage: Resource Taxes
And Green Dividends

1 &amp; 2. Introduction, Programme, etc	2-5
3. Resource Taxes and Green Dividends: A Combined Package?	6
by James Robertson
The Context
Ecotax Reform
Must Ecotaxation be Regressive?
Site-value Land Taxation
Citizen's Income (or Basic Income)
Targeting or Universality?
Towards a new Social Compact
4. Citizen's Income and the 'New Social Question'	13 by Philippe van Parijs
References
Organisations and Websites
5. Ethics and the Environment	18
by Fred Harrison
Ecology and Property Rights
Taxation: A Determinant of Culture
Taxation and Morality
Is There a Public Value?
Of Winners and Losers
Compensation for Taxpayers
The Benefits-Received Principle
Compensating Nature and The Community
The Distribution of Rent
Economics Fit for People - and Nature
6. Red-Light Taxes and Green-Light Taxes	30
by Mason Gaffney
I. Shared Postulates
II. What is Waste, and What Should We do About It?
A. What is Waste?
B. Two Kinds of Green Taxes
C. Two Kinds of Containment Policies
III. Raising Wage Rates
IV. The Need for User Charges

Sharing our Common Heritage (cont.)

7. Local-To-Global Dimensions -

Ecotaxation, Land Value Taxation, Citizen Dividends

by Alanna Hartzok 37

Appendix 1. An International Declaration on Individual and Common Rights to Earth

Appendix 2. The Economists' Statement on Climate Change

Appendix 3. Wages and Wealth Distribution

Appendix 4. Sale of Timber Concessions in Indonesia

Appendix 5. Who Owns the Earth?

Appendix 6. Adequate Shelter for All - UN Habitat Agenda

8. Russia: Sustainable Development

and Rental Taxation by Tatiana Roskoshnaya 50

Globalisation of the Problem of Rental Taxation

Depletion of Renewable Resources

Natural Features of Russia and their Role in Sustaining Development

World Balance in Consumption of Natural Resources

Mechanisms of Rent Extraction

Problems of the Transitional Period

9. Questions and Discussion: Points Arising 60

Philosophical and Religious Aspects

Need for a New Paradigm or Ideology

Russia, Latin America and South Africa

Need for a New Understanding

The Liberal Democrats' Experience

Need for Computer Modelling

Some Points about Taxes

Some Points about Citizen's Income

Distributional Aspects of Environmental Policy

Human Work

Activity at the United Nations Level

Measurement and Meaning

10. Concluding Remarks by David Marquand 67

A New Paradigm

The Democratic Process

Citizen's Income

Productivity

Sharing our Common Heritage (cont.)

11. Follow-Up: Some Items for an Agenda on Environment, Ethics and Society	71
Principles for Sharing the Value of Common Resources
Religious, Philosophical and Political Tradition
Tax Restructuring
Citizen's Income
International Dimension
Third World Countries
Indigenous Communities
Computer Modelling
The Dynamics of Change and Inertia

1990

Future Wealth: A New Economics For The 21st Century

Introduction	ix
1 Changing Direction	1
Avoiding Catastrophe
A Historic Watershed
Through the Boredom Barrier
The Dynamics of Change
Creating Tomorrow out of Today
The Politics of Economic Transformation
2 Principles	12
Enabling Conserving
Social and Environmental Investment
A Multi-Level One-World Economy
New Economic Concepts
3 New Ideas for Old	20
Valuing People and the Earth
Beyond Materialism
Beyond Production and Consumption
Beyond the Impersonality of Capitalism and Socialism
Beyond Homo Economicus
Beyond Value-Free Economics
Beyond Smith, Marx and Keynes
4 People	30
Purposeful Workers
Purposeful Consumers
Purposeful Savers
Reviving the Household Economy
Reviving the Informal Economy
Men, Women, Children and Older People
5 Places	42
Encouraging Homegrown Local Economies
Investing in Local Self-Reliance
The Third Sector
The Economic Role of Local Government
Other Actors in the Local Economy
Cities and Countryside

Future Wealth (cont.)

6 Nations	53
Industrialized Countries
Third World Economies
Investing in the Capacities of Third World People
Investing in the Third World's Environmental Resources
Investing in Economic Self-Reliance for the Third World
The Soviet, Chinese and Other Socialist Economies
The Single European Market, 1992
7 The World Economy	68
A Multi-Polar Economic World: Two Scenarios
World Taxation and Public Expenditure
A World Currency
International Trade
The IMF and the World Bank
Transnational Corporations
8 Organizations	80
The Boredom Barrier Again
Make-Up of the Corporate Economy
What Are These Organizations For?
Ownership, Control and Finance
Scale, Size and Type of Business
Decision-Making and Motivation
Business, Management and Organization Studies
9 Money	91
Money as Master
Impersonal and Amoral
A Bird's Eye View
Money as Information
A Network of Flows
The Top Priority
10 Taxes	102
Objectives of the Tax System
A Fundamental Shift
Occupation of Land
Energy and Resources
Waste and Pollution
Local Taxation
International Taxation
Taxes by Design

Future Wealth (cont.)

11 Incomes and Capital	113
A Basic Income Scheme
Citizen Capitalists
Co-operative Capitalists, Self-Reliant Socialists
New Financial Institutions
Priority Tasks
12 Whose Money System Is It, Anyway?	124
A Multi-Level Currency System
Deregulated Currencies
Debt, Interest and Credit
Financial Collapse or Soft Landing?
Money as Servant
13 Reorientating the Real Economy	137
Work
Technology and Industry
Energy
Food and Agriculture
Transport, Housing and Planning
Health
Information and Communication
Education, Leisure and the Arts
Peace, Order and Security
Science, Philosophy and Religion
14 Agenda for the 1990s	153
Some Key Dates
Laying the Foundations
Remodelling the Structure
Redeeming the Money System
Reorientating the Real Economy
The Prospects for Success
Appendix: The New Economics Movement	165
Index	171

1985

Future Work: Jobs, self-employment and leisure after the industrial age

Preface (2006)	ii
Introduction (1985)	ix
PART 1: WHAT COMES AFTER THE EMPLOYMENT AGE?	1
Chapter 1. Possible Futures for Work	3
A Post-Industrial Age
Two Visions of Post-Industrial Society
Three Futures for Work
Three Possible Futures
Chapter 2. A Realistic Assessment	7
The Four-Sector Economy
Restoring Full Employment - A Realistic Goal?
Leisure in Place of Work-A Realistic Goal?
The Significance of Ownwork
Chapter 3. The Age of Employment	28
Pre-Industrial Patterns of Work
The Situation Now
Employment as Dependency
Masculine, Impersonal Work
Exclusive Nature of Employment
Dependency of Local Communities
Limits to Employment
Chapter 4. A Change of Direction	39
Energy
Technology
Environment
Leisure
Education and Training
Incomes
Capital, Investment, Land
PART 2: CHANGING PERCEPTIONS OF WORK	53
Chapter 5. The Work Ethic Evolves	55
The Protestant Reformation
Attitudes to Time and Money
A Work Ethic for All
Change as Liberation and Progress
Work Ethic or Leisure Ethic?
A New Work Ethic

Future Work (cont.)

Chapter 6. Changing Worldview, Changing Values	71
The Industrial-Age Outlook
A Post-Industrial Worldview
Shifting Values
Masculine and Feminine
Men's Work and Women's Work
Equal Opportunities
The Feminisation of Work
Chapter 7. The Valuation of Work	89
The Theory of the Just Price
The Labour Theory of Value
The Neo-Classical Economists
The Supremacy of Quantitative Values
The Failure of Quantitative Valuation
Pointers for the Future
 PART 3: THE END OF THE EMPLOYMENT EMPIRE	 107
Chapter 8. Labour	109
Defensive Posture
The Lucas Initiative
Work Rights and Responsibilities
Depersonalisation
Transformation of the Working Class
Chapter 9. Money	126
Money Now Dominant
Possibilities for the Future
Money and Ownwork
Positive and Negative Effects
A'Dissolution of the Monasteries'?
Chapter 10. Politics and Government	137
Political Alignments during the Industrial Age
Possible Futures for Politics and Government
A Scenario
Collapse or Decolonisation

Future Work (cont.)
PART 4: PRACTICALITIES OF THE TRANSITION	147
Chapter 11. The Shift to Ownwork Has Already Begun	149
Personal Ownwork
Local Ownwork
Business and Industry
Local Government
Central Government and International Government Agencies
Other Institutions
Chapter 12. The Ownwork Agenda	165
Personal Incomes
Access to Workspace, Land and Capital
Local Economic Development
Technology
Education, Training, Leisure
Economics, Social Sciences, Management Sciences
Key Institutions
Conclusion	189
Appendix 1 A Note on Paradigm Shifts	191
Appendix 2 An Ownwork Checklist	193
Notes and References	196
Publications Index	209
Name Index	213
Subject Index	217

1983

The Sane Alternative

2008 Preface	a
Introduction	6
1 A Choice of Futures	10
Five Scenarios	11
Business As Usual	14
Disaster	16
Authoritarian Control	18
Hyper-Expansion (HE)	20
Sane, Humane, Ecological (SHE)	22
A Historical Perspective	23
2 A New Economic Direction	30
Limits to Conventional Economic Expansion	30
(1) Physical Limits	30
(2) Social Limits	31
(3) Institutional Limits	32
(4) Psychological Limits	32
(5) Conceptual Limits	33
A SHE Economic Path	35
(1) Energy and Resources	37
(2) Lower Throughput, Greater Durability	38
(3) People First, Things Second	38
(4) Self-Reliance and Mutual Aid	39
(5) A More Decentralised Economy	40
(6) 'Another Development' Internationally	40
(7) Technology as Servant	41
(8) Town and Country	42
(9) Greater Economic Equality	43
(10) Work, Leisure and Life	45
3 Walking on Two Legs	46
Dual Economy: Formal and Informal	46
Formal Economy: Background	51
Formal Economy: International Perspective	53
Future of the Welfare State	57
Restructuring the Economy	60

The Sane Alternative (cont.)

4 A Shift of Paradigms	65
What is a Paradigm Shift?	65
Wealth	67
Power	69
Growth	71
Work	74
Metaphysical Reconstruction	85
5 A Process of Transformation	87
Upward Spiral	87
Breakdown/Breakthrough	88
Decolonisation	90
Liberation	96
Psychology of Transformation	99
A Multitude of Roles	100
6 Strategy for Change	106
Pieces of the Action	107
Other Theories of Social Change	111
(1) Technological Imperative	112
(2) Reformism	113
(3) Political Revolution	114
(4) Confrontation, and Direct Political Action	115
Objections to a Pluralist Strategy	116
Comparison with Marxism	118
Non-Violent Transformation	122
Postscript to Chapter Six	124
Peace	124
Feminism	124
7 Tea-Time at Marshbeck	127
Appendix : Some Questions for Discussion	133
References and Bibliography	135
Index	148